

2011 Pre-Teen Volunteer Application

Drift Creek Camp's Pre-Teen Volunteer Program is a mentoring program designed to train future Teen volunteers/counselors. It is open to interested students, with or without prior camp experience. Our goal is to form a foundational experience of Christian service that will help to equip you for future ministry opportunities. This position will challenge you to develop an attitude of service, spiritual growth, work ethic, and social experience. The term for this position will be one week in length during the High School Camp. This position is only available for finishing eighth graders.

NOTE: The maximum number of Teen Volunteers each week is eight. Priority will be given to the first four female and the first four male applicants. Applicants are limited to one week of Teen Volunteering. Exceptions will be given to this rule if there are not enough applicants to fill all the positions.

Please answer the following questions. Use a separate sheet of paper for your answers. New applicants answer questions 1-6, returning applicants answer questions 7-9.

1. Why are you interested in working at Drift Creek Camp? What are your goals for this summer?
2. Drift Creek Camp is affiliated with the Mennonite Church and is concerned with the spiritual growth of each camper. To be able to help the camp ministry achieve its spiritual objectives, staff members should be active Christians. Please describe your Christian experience and Faith and what Christ means in your life.
3. Working in a camp setting requires a willingness to be part of a team effort and to become more selfless. Describe what this means to you and how you will be able to serve in a positive way in this environment.
4. Part of the role of the teen volunteers is to be stewards of the resources of the camp. You will be asked to care for both the facilities of the camp and for the natural environment. Describe what the concept of stewardship means to you.
5. What experience have you had working in a camp setting or in activities related to children and youth?
6. What skills and gifts do you have which you could apply to the camp setting? How has God used these in your life?

Please answer questions 7-9 if you are a returning applicant.

7. How have you grown in your walk with Christ over the past year?
8. What is drawing you back to serve another summer at DCC? What are your goals for the summer?
9. Describe your highest and lowest moments of your most recent DCC summer camp experience.
10. Have you gained any new skills, gifts or experiences that you might apply during summer camp?

Please list the following references. One of these should be your pastor. The other should be someone who is not a close friend or relative, but who knows you well. If possible, it should be a former employer. Please fill out completely.
