

the slug drift creek camp parent&me

June 18-20, 2010

through kayla's kaleidoscope

I love starting off the summer with Parent and Me camp. Parent and Me camp is so unique from the other weeks. Not only do we get to know the kids because they are up here for the weekend, but we also get to know their parents. One of the things I enjoy the most about this age is that they have so much energy and are excited about everything, even if it is just a silly song. A highlight from this weekend for me was group games Friday night when all the kids played Volcanoes and Craters. I did not know that watching that game could be so entertaining. Thanks to all of you for coming this weekend I have really enjoyed everyone who came out. See you next year!!!

camper favorites

- Fireside!
- Volcanoes and Craters
- Scavenger Hunt
- Olympics
- Hike to the Giants and Discovery time at the creek
- Making mugs to surprise dads
- Buddy Time
- Chalk drawings

thoughts from pastor ann

Parent and Me camp was lots of fun with 25 campers and lots of parents. We "Met God on the Mountain" with our scripture, songs and drama. Through our verses we learned, we know that God will instruct and teach us in the way we should go. We were blessed by beautiful weather and happy campers!

Bible Verses

Psalm 32:8
I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you and watch over you.

Psalm 46:1-2
God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea.

Matthew 7:12
So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.
