FINDING YOURSELF

Worthy

APRIL 12-14 at Drift Creek Camp

"I PRAISE YOU BECAUSE I AM FEARFULLY,
WONDERFULLY MADE;
YOUR WORKS ARE WONDERFUL,
I KNOW THAT FULL WELL

PSALM 139:14

Worship, fellowship & activities:

Gather each morning for singing, prayer & reflection in group sessions. Then plan your own time.... Breathe in fresh sea air; walk among ancient giants and with a friend or forest bathe in solitude. Practice yoga or get creative with Open Studio in the craft room. Experiment with the ancient art of Japanese Boro and Sashiko stitching used to beautifully restore value in worn clothing and textiles. Cultivate community with old friends & new while enjoying delicious meals and some pampering. Our book discussion will be Worthy, by speaker Melanie Mock. Invite a sister, mother, friend, cousin, daughter in your life. Visit www.driftcreek.org for details!

Melanie Springer Mock, guest speaker

Melanie Springer Mock is a professor of English at George Fox University. In 2009, she received the university's Undergraduate Teacher of the Year award; and in 2015, she was awarded George Fox University's Undergraduate Researcher of the Year. She is the author or co-author of five books, including most recently Worthy:

Finding Yourself in a World Expecting Someone

Else (Herald Press, 2018). In this book Mock offers life-giving reminders that we are fearfully and wonderfully made. Set free from the anxiety to conform to others' expectations, we are liberated to become who God has created us to be. If you're worn out from worrying that you've missed God's One Big Calling, and if you're tired of trying to fit yourself into some cookie-cutter Christian mold, step away from the expectations and toward God's heart. Melanie lives in Dundee, OR, with her husband Ron and two teenage sons; she is also a stepmother to two adults, and grandmother to two boys. In her spare time, Melanie likes running, swimming, reading, and watching reality television.
