Thanks for taking the time to tell us about you. The on-site staff is truly "the face" of DCC and the link between the organization and its guests. This is a service opportunity. We desire members of the team who are open to new ideas; maintain a willingness to listen kindly; foster an eagerness to learn; a desire to grow; and the flexibility to change. Our goal is to build a service culture at camp based on mutual respect and the need to work together. While each of us may have specific area of focus and responsibility, we also must function as a team. We look forward to hearing from you.
