AFFIRMATION

Drift Creek Camp is rooted in the Anabaptist tradition and is committed to upholding the Mennonite Confession of faith.

_____ I have read and can commit to DCC's Philosophy of Ministry.

* DCC acknowledges that staff members come from many different backgrounds and traditions. We value how these perspectives can challenge us to grow. Including the Mennonite Confession of Faith is an effort to have a basic understanding of the core beliefs that will be expressed and expected while on staff at DCC. If there is any portion of the Confession of Faith that you disagree with please explain on a separate sheet of paper and we can discuss it further.

As a staff member at Drift Creek Camp you are entrusted with the care of many children. This is a trust we do not take lightly. Staff members are expected to adhere to high moral and spiritual standards. Please affirm the following statements by checking the box next to the statement.

Check all that apply to you:

- I have never been convicted of a crime
- I do not abuse drugs or alcohol
- I agree to abstain from alcohol and/or drug-use while representing Drift Creek Camp
- I consent to Drift Creek Camp’s policy to undergo a formal criminal background check

The information on this application is complete and true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that I may be relieved of my responsibilities if statements or information are incorrect, incomplete, or false. In the case of illness or accident, I give permission that medical procedures be instituted without delay as the judgment of the camp medical personnel dictates. Approval is given for the staff member to be given, by the camp medical personnel, over-the-counter non-prescription medications according to the camp doctor’s standing orders.

I hereby authorize all references listed to give any information regarding employment or personal information. I understand the job responsibilities and remuneration package. If I am selected, I am willing to work under terms stated.
